Journeyman

"Journeyman" is a one-hour documentary about rites of passage, mentoring, and male culture in America. The film follows Joe and Mike, two teenage boys from diverse backgrounds who struggle with depression and violence, both of whom are in dire need of support and guidance from adult males. In a mentoring program, they face challenging rites of passage, discover their inner strength, and learn to engage with a community of supportive men.

Four Shields of Human Nature - A teaching DVD

By Kim Shelton, Lost Borders Press

This documentary chronicles a group of nine youth, four trainees, and two wilderness rites of passage guides, Steven Foster and Meredith Little, gathered in the mountains of the Sierra Nevada to complete a modern day wilderness passage rite, an initiation from childhood to adulthood. This video is documentation of one of the many preparatory meetings which were held in the days before these young people walked out to live alone without food for three days and nights.

Lost Borders: Coming of Age in the Wilderness (58 minute DVD version)

By Kim Shelton, Lost Borders Press

This documentary chronicles a group of nine youths as they perform a ten-day initiation ceremony, at the heart of which is a three day and night solo fast in the high desert of the Inyo Mountains in eastern California. On their return the initiates are greeted by teachers and family who listen as they attempt to come to terms with death, torn families, the deep frustration of adolescence, and with powerful resolve to make the transition to adulthood.
